

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Custer City is the oldest city in the Black Hills having celebrated its 130th Anniversary last year; and,

Whereas, The community has an interesting story and exciting history, which can be found at its local museum; and,

Whereas, Custer City, county seat of Custer County, is a progressive business community that relies on agriculture, livestock, tourism, health care and more than 172 independent businesses; and,

Whereas, Custer City has a keen desire to provide numerous recreational opportunities for its citizens and visitors; and,

Whereas, The community promotes recreation and tourism through area attractions such as Mt. Rushmore National Memorial, Crazy Horse Memorial, Custer State Park, Wind Cave National Park and Jewel Cave National Park; and,

Whereas, Today, state government is on the road to the people of Custer City and the surrounding area in a unique program called "Capital for a Day"; and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information and concerns among the governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups and the general public can occur:

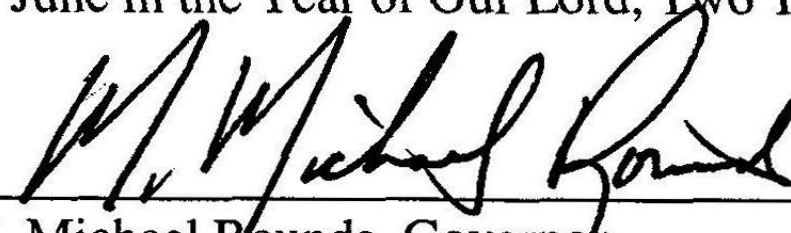

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 13, 2006, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
